CELEBRATE WORLD BOOK DAY @ MPH BOOKSTORES

◀ STRING A STORY ▶

Remember those school days where we used to play the game of creating a whole story from a single sentence? You would start with a sentence and your friend would continue with each person taking turns to 'contribute' to the story. Well, we at MPH would like to relive that experience all over again.

Just drop by at our selected MPH outlets (MPH Mid Valley, MPH One Utama and MPH Subang Parade), ask for that special notebook and continue the story where the person before you had left off.

On April, in conjunction with World Book Day, we will hold a special "finale" event at one of the outlet. The story written by you and others will be read out. Will there be a happily ever after or will it be a cliffhanger? Join in the fun and hear the wacky result on how the book turns out!
