

Mark the Day with a Rose

WORLD BOOK DAY

COMPETITION

In 1995, UNESCO declared 23rd of April the World Book Day. Celebrate it with us by taking part in this competition and win some fabulous prizes.

To enter, answer the questions overleaf on the World Book Day and send them together with your personal details (name, telephone and email address) to:

EMBASSY OF SPAIN
200 Jalan Ampang
50450 Kuala Lumpur

Or e-mail your answers to aula.kualalumpur@cervantes.es

Prizes:

- 1st prize: *Spanish language course worth RM 700 at Aula Cervantes, a book written by a Spanish speaking author and a Spanish-English dictionary.
- 2nd prize: A book written by a Spanish speaking author and a Spanish- English dictionary.
- 3rd prize: A Spanish-English dictionary.

Closing date: 19th April 2011

Prizes will be presented on the 23rd of April at 2.00 pm in MPH Megastore MidValley.

* Subject to availability of courses during 2011

For further information, please contact Ms Susana at 03 2711 2000 ext. 5207 or e-mail aula.kualalumpur@cervantes.es

Organised by the Embassy of Spain, Instituto Cervantes, Dewan Bahasa Dan Pustaka and MPH Bookstores

QUESTIONS

- Mario Vargas Llosa is the first Nobel Laureate ever from?
 - Argentina
 - Peru
 - Spain
- Which of the following authors has not won a Miguel de Cervantes Prize?
 - Lucía Etxebarria
 - Miguel Delibes
 - Antonio Buero Vallejo
- How many authors from Spain have been awarded a Nobel Prize in Literature?
 - 5
 - 4
 - 3
- Which of these occupations has not been attributed to Miguel de Cervantes, author of the book voted the greatest novel of all times, Don Quixote?
 - Soldier
 - Tax collector
 - Chef
- Where in Spain did the celebration of the Book Day start?
 - Galicia
 - Catalonia
 - Baquer Country
- In 1995, World Book & Copyright Day was officially declared by:
 - UNICEF
 - UNHCR
 - UNESCO
- The following celebration takes also place in Catalonia the 23rd of April:
 - St. Valentine's Day
 - St. George's Day
 - St. Patrick's Day
- Which Spanish Award Ceremony takes place the same day as the World Book Day Celebration?
 - Miguel de Cervantes Prize
 - Booker Prize
 - Nobel Prize in Literature

Rules & Regulations:

- The contest is open to all residents of Malaysia, except employees of Embassy of Spain, Instituto Cervantes, Dewan Bahasa Dan Pustaka and MPH Bookstores Sdn Bhd, contest sponsors, partners and their immediate family members.
- Contestants may submit one entry each. Multiple entries will be disqualified.
- One prize is allowed per contestant only.
- Prizes are not exchangeable for cash and the organiser reserves the right to exchange the prize with that of a similar value without prior notice.
- Judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entertained.
- The winners will be notified by e-mail and phone after the judging.
- Contest ends 19th April 2011.